

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: 21-03-2021

Your privacy is important to us

It is PayPer Software's policy to respect your privacy regarding any information we may collect while operating our website. This Privacy Policy applies to payper.software (hereinafter, "us", "we", or "payper.software"). We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting personally identifiable information you may provide us through the Website. We have adopted this privacy policy ("Privacy Policy") to explain what information may be collected on our Website, how we use this information, and under what circumstances we may disclose the information to third parties. This Privacy Policy applies only to information we collect through the Website and does not apply to our collection of information from other sources.

This Privacy Policy, together with the Terms of service posted on our Website, set forth the general rules and policies governing your use of our Website. Depending on your activities when visiting our Website, you may be required to agree to additional terms of service.

1. Website Visitors

Like most website operators, PayPer Software collects non-personally-identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available, such as the browser type, language preference, referring site, and the date and time of each visitor request. PayPer Software's purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to better understand how PayPer Software's visitors use its website. From time to time, PayPer Software may release non-personally-identifying information in the aggregate, e.g., by publishing a report on trends in the usage of its website.

PayPer Software also collects potentially personally-identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses for logged in users and for users leaving comments on <https://payper.software> blog posts. PayPer Software only discloses logged in user and commenter IP addresses under the same circumstances that it uses and discloses personally-identifying information as described below.

3. Advertisements

Ads appearing on our website may be delivered to users by advertising partners, who may set cookies. These cookies allow the ad server to recognize your computer each time they send you an online advertisement to compile information about you or others who use your computer. This information allows ad networks to, among other things, deliver targeted advertisements that they believe will be of most interest to you. This Privacy Policy covers the use of cookies by PayPer Software and does not cover the use of cookies by any advertisers.

6. Cookies

To enrich and perfect your online experience, PayPer Software uses "Cookies", similar technologies and services provided by others to display personalized content, appropriate advertising and store your preferences on your computer.

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer, and that the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. PayPer Software uses cookies to help PayPer Software identify and track visitors, their usage of <https://payper.software>, and their website access preferences. PayPer Software visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using PayPer Software's websites, with the drawback that certain features of PayPer Software's websites may not function properly without the aid of cookies.

By continuing to navigate our website without changing your cookie settings, you hereby acknowledge and agree to PayPer Software's use of cookies.

7. Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, PayPer Software may change its Privacy Policy from time to time, and in PayPer Software's sole discretion. PayPer Software encourages visitors to frequently check this page for any changes to its Privacy Policy. Your continued use of this site after any change in this Privacy Policy will constitute your acceptance of such change.
